To ensure that all participants receive their credentials and conference materials prior to the start of the conference, the ability to change from remote to in-person will end on 3 October 2022. Remote registrations received after 20 October will need to submit payment by credit card only and will be subject to delay in access to conference material. Registration payment, in U.S. Dollars ($), is due upon submission of registration. The registration fee includes an electronic copy of conference proceedings and hybrid conference sessions. All requests for refunds must be received in writing no later than 14 October 2022 and will be assessed a 20% cancellation fee. No refunds will be made after that date. A $50.00 fee will be charged for all substitutions.

I acknowledge that all material presented at the MicroTAS 2022 Conference is the intellectual property of the presenter and may not be recorded, photographed, quoted, disseminated or transmitted by summary in any form without express written authority of the author.

SUNDAY WORKSHOPS

The MicroTAS 2022 workshops will occur in a virtual format only with pre-recorded presentations being made available a week in advance of the conference to registrants. Attendees can potentially register for multiple workshops with no overlap in timings for access to these contents. As workshops are intended to be interactive, a live Q&A and discussions will be held for each workshop, on the Saturday and Sunday prior to the conference (October 22 - 23, 2022). Questions can be submitted in advance or during the panel, so that the moderator can address them to the presenters for discussion of the relevant issues.
